*In some cases it may be easier or more appropriate to include the result expected with the work objective; in some cases they may be the same. It's not overly important in which column the outcome statement appears, as long as there is an expected result and means to assess its achievement.

Competency Objectives

Describe the competency and related expectations	Provide examples that show how this competency level has been achieved

Note: The competencies to be identified on this page are those knowledge, skills, and attributes (either technical or behavioral) that are important to demonstrate in order to perform the current year's work assignment effectively. More information about in-scope competencies may be accessed at <https://taskroom.sp.saskatchewan.ca/Pages/Competencies.aspx>

Learning and Development Objectives

Objectives	What activities will be undertaken to move towards this growth objective	Progress

Notes:

1. On this page, list objectives that are for the purpose of your professional development to:
  - a. Address any competency gaps for your current job
  - b. Enhance knowledge, skills, and abilities to be even better at your job; and/or
  - c. Build knowledge, skills and abilities for future roles and capacity.
2. Supervisors need to support, encourage, and fund, if possible, appropriate learning and development activities. Employees are expected to take some personal initiative for their professional development and discuss their plans with their supervisor.
