

SGEU Up-in-Range

The following posting is in accordance with the clauses dealing with "In-Hiring Rate of Pay".

Permanent Full-time

ENV002620 - Environmental Protection Officer

Ministry: Executive Government>026 Environment

Grade and Job: SGEU.12., CRM - SGEU

Salary Range: $44,410-$55,654

Rate Approved: $50.50 per hour

Key Responsibilities of position:

As an Environmental Protection Officer in the Impacted Sites & Environmental Emergencies section of the Environmental Protection Branch, you will be responsible for: Reviewing environmental site assessments, corrective action plans, closure reports for impacted sites and provide technical review comments regarding these sites; Reviewing applications and preparing approvals for the construction and operation of all components of municipal, industrial and mining operations related to raw product handling, processing, waste management, air quality, waste industrial water treatment, potable water treatment, storage and handling of hazardous substances waste dangerous goods; Reviewing and commenting on all required document submissions from municipal, industrial and mining operations including those for the management of environmentally impacted sites; Performing environmental inspections to ensure compliance with provincial legislation, the Environmental Code, regulations and approvals; Responding to and investigating spills of hazardous substances and waste dangerous goods and approve clean up; Developing the Province's environmental policies and regulations regarding municipal, industrial and mining operations and their inherent environmental concerns; and Responding to public inquiries or complaints. The ideal candidate will have comprehensive knowledge of: municipal, industrial and mining operations industries; environmental issues and environmental protection processes associated with municipal, industrial and mining operations, including treatment/storage of hazardous materials, spill response, air emissions, waste management, and assessment/decommissioning/reclamation of environmentally impacted areas; and geology, hydrogeology, biology, geochemistry, water chemistry, related inorganic chemistry; relating to municipal and industrial applications and impacted site reclamation. Knowledge of applicable legislation, regulations, agreements, policies, guidelines, principles and processes relevant to environmental protection and compliance assurance including results-based regulation is also required. Typically, the knowledge and skills required for this position can be achieved through a degree in engineering or science combined with related environmental work experience or equivalent combination of education and experience. You will have demonstrated ability to adhere to the values of the Saskatchewan Public Service. You will have comprehensive knowledge of: Environmental issues and environmental protection processes associated with treatment/storage of hazardous materials, spill response, air emissions, waste management, and assessment/decommissioning/reclamation of environmentally impacted areas; Geology, hydrogeology, biology, geochemistry, water chemistry, related inorganic chemistry; relating to municipal, mining and industrial applications and impacted site reclamation; and Applicable legislation, regulations, agreements, policies, guidelines, principles and processes relevant to environmental protection and compliance assurance including results-based regulation

Qualifications of person Appointed:

- BSc. Geology;
- Saskatchewan Occupational Health Supervision and Safety Certificate; and
- 10 years' related experience.

Submit challenges to staffing@gov.sk.ca

Closing Date: December 27, 2025