

You can help protect government's IT environment.

Learn about printing Government documents safely.

Be aware of what you are printing to a common printer that can be accessed by a large number of employees.

CONFIDENTIAL

Use secure print mode when printing document with confidential information such as personal information, where possible.

Uninstall printers on your computer after a printer is removed from a workplace.

Ensure you choose the right printer if you have multiple installed on your computer.

IT security questions? Contact the IT Service Desk by phone at 306-787-5000 or by email at itoservicedesk@gov.sk.ca.